

Mr Thabang Bogopa

Thabang Bogopa is a lecturer at the University of South Africa (UNISA), with interests spanning criminology, applied research, and evidence-based interventions.

He is a crime researcher and analyst with expertise in crime prevention, organised crime, and community safety.

Thabang Bogopa is the Chairperson of BMF Tubatse and Member of BMF Limpopo PROVCO.

He is a former National Portfolio Head for Community Development within the Black Management Forum Young Professionals (BMF YP). He is also the Director of NapIntex, a multidisciplinary consultancy focused on research, security advisory services, and innovative solutions for crime and risk management.

His work bridges academia, policy advocacy, and practice, with a strong emphasis on translating research into actionable strategies!