

Prof MM Kanjere

Maria Matshidiso Kanjere is a Professor at TGSL, University of Limpopo. She has a strong focus on leadership, gender parity, and socioeconomic imperatives of the youth.

Her insights on current issues are both timely and impactful. Prof Kanjere is a Former Chairperson of Council in Sekhukhune TVET College and a current Charter Council member in the Department of Transport, looking at the interests of women in the B-BBEE.

In 2018 Business Women Association of South Africa (BWASA) honored her with an award of Business Woman of the Year, under the Professional Category.